

Health fair helping hundreds of local homeless

Tuesday, Nov 17, 2009

What's being called the largest health fair for the homeless in Southern California is taking place from November 16th-18th in Santa Barbara. KCLU's Lance Orozco reports the effort offers everything from swine flu shots, to checkups, plus free shoes and clothing.